8-10 minutes

For those of you not up-to-speed with the techniques and tactics of Q / Military Intelligence --- as well as you Sunshine Patriots, members of the whiny Backseat "Are We There Yet" Chorus, and especially the negative nihilists of the Black Pill Society who have swallowed the silly slander about Q & Trump being "psyops" to pacify us with "hopium" -- you know, "but but muh Operation Trust" (sighing, rolling eyes) --- understand that a repeatedly stated objective of this years-long, slow motion invisible coup was to avoid a bloody civil war or even just a divisive political backlash against the righteous coup plotters. The engineered ideological unification of the American public -- from Right to Center to Left -- was always a common theme of the Q posts.

With that context in mind, let's review the sudden and strange conversion of three very well known and influential ultra-leftist villains who now sound as though they work for the Trump campaign! They are: Elon Musk, Bill Maher and Robert F Kennedy Jr.

They all LOOK a bit "different" these days too.

ELON MUSK

has never even been nominated for a science prize nor invented anything in his life. His companies were seeded with CIA capital and the enormous profits came as the result of free publicity, government funding and the Global Warming / Climate Change HOAX upon which his solar panel company and electric car companies were predicated upon. The Musk which we had come to know and despise was an academic mediocrity, a jet-setting con-artist, an Obama-lover, an admitted socialist, a Global Warmist, and a pro-UN Globalist puffed-up to godlike status by the illusionists of the Marxist Media.

But in recent years, Musk, or "Mask" -- whose deluded fanboys number in the hundreds of millions worldwide -- has suddenly turned full blown right-wing "conspiracy theorist." He has condemned leftist censorship; opened up Twitter to conservatives once again; trashed Dr. Anthony Falsie and Covid policies; attacked leading Demonrats and the media, demanded the release of the Epstein client list; warned about "false flags," called for people to have more children; and even warned about "world government."

What the heck happened to Elon Musk?!

Musk's tweets -- read and shared by millions of fanboys -- are as hard-core "conspiracy theorist" as anything you'll find on Gab or Truth Social.

BILL MAHER (cough cough)

This smug, filthy, extreme left "comedian" / talk show host and suspected child-rapist has, for 20 years, used the platform of his popular HBO shows to spew hatred at conservatives, Christians, "right wing conspiracy theorists" and especially, since 2015, Donald Trump. The show's routine is so pathetically predictable. With every insult, the trained fanboys and girls in the audience clap and cheer for the glib greaseball--- along with the fools watching at home.

But like Musk, Maher, only in recent years, has "moved to the center." Though he still utters many libtard platitudes (he has to, given his audience), Maher's unmistakable march toward the center is as astonishing and unmistakable to behold as that of Musk's move to the center, and now the "far right." These days, Maher's monologues are peppered with biting comments aimed at the tranny madness, Covid policies and the censorship of conservatives. Maher does this while constantly reminding his sometimes surprised audience of his libtard credentials -- before adding that the "woke" Left (Democrat Party) has moved away from him, not the other way around.

What the heck happened to Bill Maher?!

1. Bill Maher was outed by Q as a member of the red shoe pedo club. // 2. In 2018, a clearly worried Maher devoted two long segments to mocking Q "conspiracy theorists." // 3. Until recently, Maher had been Trump's most vicious critic.

Bill Maher's Slobbering Elon Musk Interview Was an Insult to Our Intelligence

The Marxist publication "Jacobin" was outraged after Musk and Maher recently trashed the Left and its "woke mind virus" on Maher's HBO Show, "Real

Time." After Maher had built-up Musk as a superhuman world-changing genius, the pair continued an assault of the far left for most of the 20-minute scripted event (as normies clapped!). During this time, neither Musk nor Maher laid a finger on Trump or Republicans! (here)

Bill Maher should be considered a "campaign contribution" to the Democrat Party, even though he's boring, and has really BAD ratings. HBO SHOULD BE FORCED TO PUT ON COUNTER PROGRAMING, AND SO SHOULD OTHER FAKE NEWS NETWORKS!

Trump's attacks on Maher serve the purpose of allowing his new agent to maintain his "street cred" among his audience of idiots.

ROBERT F KENNEDY JR.

Due to his positions on vaccine fraud and the murder of his father, RFK Jr. has, like a broken clock, been correct twice per day. But on just about every other subject, Bobby Jr. has been a typical Harvard-DC libtard --- as well as a heroin user, a legal extortionist and a race-baiter. In his main occupation as an "environmental lawyer," RFK's extremist positions went beyond just being fanatically anti-business, anti-coal and anti-oil. He was a straight-up, deceitful totalitarian commissar. He once wrote:

"I believe that corporations which deliberately, purposefully, maliciously and systematically sponsor climate lies should be given the death penalty. This can be accomplished through an existing legal proceeding known as "charter revocation." State Attorneys General can invoke this remedy whenever corporations put their profit-making before the "public welfare." (here)

Not even Al Gore went that far! But in a neck-snapping sudden reversal, the new and improved RFK just had this to say about the Climate Con and the World Economic Forum crowd:

"Climate issues and pollution issues are being exploited by mega billionaires like Bill Gates in the same way that COVID was exploited to use it as an excuse to clamp down top-down totalitarian controls on society. If you look closely, as it turns out, the guys who are promoting the solutions are the people who own the patents for those solutions. It's a way they've given climate chaos a bad name because people now see that it's just another crisis that's being used to strip the wealth of the poor and to enrich billionaires."

Back in April, the RHC / ANYT did an entire piece covering RFK's anti-Establishment announcement speech -- (which so upset the New York Slimes) -- as a candidate for 2024 Demonrat Party (a campaign designed to attack "Joe Biden" from within the Party itself). Neither his speech nor his campaign website even mention "Climate Change," but, like Musk & Maher, he did attack the "woke bobble-heads" of the Left in a brutal and mocking manner one would have expected from Trump, not RFK Jr.

What the heck happened to Robert Kennedy Jr?!

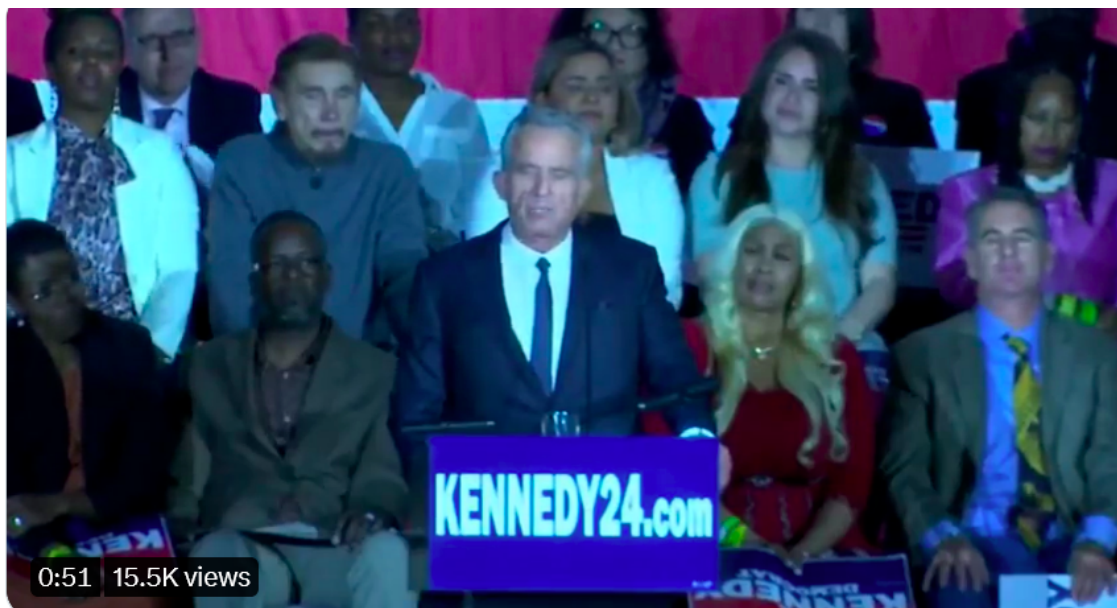

Empty ambitious men who built their careers and their vast fortunes in faithful service to Leftist Ideology simply do not discover a conscience, and then decide to bite the hand that fed them for so many years. No way! What's going on here, all of a sudden?

Answer: Formerly despicable Leftists such as Kennedy, Musk and Maher -- (and several other bizarre cases of evil piece-of-shit extreme Marxists-moving-rightward that we can cite, such as Obama, Al Sharpton & Noam Chomsky) -- indicate that they are all either "under submission" to the White Hats, or have been replaced à la "Joe Biden." Their assigned role in the invisible coup is to gently guide millions of the bewildered boobs of center-left Normiedom onto a slowly rightward-moving conveyor belt -- without their sheepish fanboys and fangirls even realizing that they are being maneuvered, and without them sensing that the belt is slowly moving.

Better brush up on your New World Order studies and stock up on refreshments and snacks, boys and girls. We may soon have some curious new and unexpected visitors coming to visit us for answers. Trust the plan. It's sheer genius.

 Editor's Note: In RFK's case, he may have voluntarily shed his leftist baggage in order to assist the White Hats in exposing the murders of his father and uncle.

"I'm watching my country being stolen from me... I don't want the Democratic party to be the party of fear and pharma and war and censorship. We need to be more than neocons with woke bobble-heads. I've spent my lifetime preparing for this office because I've spent so much time suing these agencies."
