BATTLE FIELD AMERICA: 2022 - 2024

Battlefield America Part 4

Vaccine Bioweapons

Welcome to 2022 Battlefield America. I'm Mike Adams, the founder of Brighteon.com and Brighteon.tv. In this docuseries, we're going to be interviewing Steve Quayle, author and expert, who knows what's about to happen, because he's been writing about it for over two decades. In this docuseries, we're going to be talking about cyber warfare, and its impacts on domestic America, social chaos, the vaccine die off, biological weapons, war with Russia, the global currency reset, and even cryptocurrency crashes. We're going to cover transhumanism, demonic influence and infestation of our world leaders, as well as the collapsing food supply chain, starvation, famine and increased desperation in America and around the world due to the events that have been weaponized against humanity. Each episode of this exclusive docuseries is free to view, and it's available on Brighteon.com and Brighteon.tv.

Mike Adams:

Now let's shift gears to the die-off that has already begun because of the depopulation vaccine bio weapons, and I will also then bring in some discussion about additional bio weapons that may be released, such as smallpox, or Marburg, or Ebola, or perhaps a hemorrhagic fever, or some other weaponized strain of COVID.

Now, according to the White House, 96 percent of federal workers have taken these vaccines. Their very high vaccination rates, which translates into upcoming death rates among doctors, medical professionals, school teachers, federal workers, as I said, but especially leftists, people who live in blue cities, and this includes the city workers. It also, typically, includes quite a few police and firefighters, although there's a lot of resistance among firefighters, police, paramedics and EMTs, because they've seen the vaccine deaths firsthand, so there will be a surviving contingent of former police and former firefighters, and even active duty soldiers, who said no, even though the Pentagon is trying to mass murder the military with these vaccines.

Steve, here's the question for you on this. When we see who has taken these vaccines, and then the list I just gave, and we look at there are short term deaths, the myocarditis, heart attacks, strokes and so on, there are medium term deaths, which are now accelerating, the antibody dependent enhancement, the immune system failure in the presence of other wild type viruses. Oh, and by the way, the CDC is now warning they're going to be, I think, the CDC said 15,000 deaths a day in America by January, and they're claiming it's from COVID. No, folks, it's from the COVID vaccine. And then, you have long term deaths, which are the autoimmune disorders, the cancer deaths, and the neurological degeneration, and that's going to take about 10 years for all of that to happen. You'll see increased cancer deaths each year. Steve talked to us about the changes in the demographics then, of what this means, as the big population centers actually die off, and the liberal voters die off at a ratio of two to one versus red state voters, because Republicans are saying no to the vaccine, much more than liberals, and what does it mean when entire cities lose a significant portion of their staffers, the people who keep cities running. Your thoughts, Steve?

Steve Quayle:

Well, first of all, I think the word rage comes to mind, because again, we're sitting, Mike, basically line numbers. We know that there are multiple vaccines, batches of vaccines, and they're always testing. This is something I want people to understand. In bio weapons development, if you tweak a bio weapon, you want to see the lethal dose rate, you want to see the rate of infection, you want to see the time of infection. It's just like the big story was 15 vials of smallpox were found in a freezer. That's nothing compared to the to the 12,000 gallons of smallpox that disappeared from the Russian bio weapons plant, a bio prepper rod, when the head bio chemist there, Kenton Alibag, defected and told there were was 12,000 gallons of smallpox in the West. The majority of them said, it's of no concern to us. It will become a concern.

Let me share when the vaccinators and the wealthiest people in the world are telling their buddies, there's no higher rate of return, it's so cheap, and you get the highest rate of return. Remember, just as the love of money, which they love, and the control of money, which they embellish, and basically, just imbibe it, it all ends up in the word "control."

Again, nothing they say, and I get so sick, you do too, I get sick of the word "science" behind it. I mean, come on, there's no science. The basis of scientific inquiry for hundreds, if not thousands of years, is basically thrown out the window.

Well, it's the science of mass murder, and the science of depopulation. That's what it is.

Steve Quayle:

Here's the thing, mass murder is the goal. When you want your goal, whatever the goal is to be, in this case, mass murder, and I'm talking global genocide, I'm talking the annihilation of the human race, literally, which, by the way, appear on this DVD. The bottom line is that all options are open.

See, that's what I'm trying my darndest to get people to understand is that they have declared, it doesn't matter what you say, it doesn't matter how many people die of heart attacks. By the way,

I believe that fulfills a literal scripture, where Jesus said, "Men's hearts would fail them for looking after those things coming upon the earth." The whole Wuhan virus, and all of the negative attributes, people dying, all the things you listed, all the issues are, basically, those are causing people to move on fear, instead of looking at a matter, judging evidence.

What do we see? We see Twitter twatter, blood will splatter, as basically, what was the censoring anything that's true, even if it's from the Lancet. The Lancet says, don't make second class citizens out of those who refuse the vaccine, and yet, they're making second class citizens. What they're doing is creating -- here's something, Mike, nobody said, when people start to die, who have been vaccinated, they're not going to take it out on the authorities, they're going to come after the people that weren't vaccinated, because of jealousy and envy. I'm telling you point blank, that's what the stage is being set for. Same thing with class warfare, same thing with race warfare, its jealousy and envy. I'm going to tell people don't burn down your backyards if you want to go home at night. Don't burn down the restaurants that you go in order a make burger from. Don't do that. By the way, when the power goes off, there's no television.

Mike Adams:

Tell us what's coming to America, because already, in Australia, we are seeing the government with police going out and rounding up people for medical kidnapping, forcefully taking them against their will to a concentration camp. That's not hyperbole. It's exactly what's happening. We're seeing similar efforts underway in Austria for vaccine passport checking and arrests. We just saw a sit-in of people in New York City, here in America, being arrested, I think at a Cheesecake Factory, for not complying with certain COVID restrictions.

Steve, in your view, are door-to-door medical kidnapping arrest coming to America, are they going to round people up in certain states, in certain areas in America, and take them into concentration camps? Are they going to have gunpoint medicine, force you to take a vaccine at gunpoint anywhere in America? Is that coming?

Steve Quayle:

Absolutely. I think it's already being proposed. You had Cramer, the financial guys saying that people need to be forced at the barrel of a gun to, basically, take the vaccine. I will go on further and be a little bit firmer, Mike, I believe that camps are not containment camps. I believe that they are killing fields. I believe that people will go in and they'll never come out, because remember, this is what people have got to keep beating their brains up with or keep reminding themselves: As a better statement, they want maximum death. In order to facilitate maximum death, the people that go into the camps, I want to make it clear, if you're a husband, you got a wife, you're separated for life. You don't want to know what they're going to do to the women, and I can't bring myself to tell them that, I just can't, or your children. Are you kidding me? The number one group of pedophiles and child sacrificers.

Mike, here's the thing, you've seen it, there are 260 some thousand guillotines already positioned all through the United States, military bases and FEMA camps, and so, you asked me, will you be forced into a camp at the point of a gun? Yeah, but what's even sadder than that, those are the Clergy Response Teams. Major pastors will tell their parishioners, I'm talking 20,000, 30,000, 40,000 church membership, to go with the authorities, because it's in Romans 13, "that all government is given by God." That's not true. All godly government is given by God, and the scripture is very clear on that.

Here's what I'm saying, I'm saying, forget the camps being called containment camps. They are slaughter camps, and that's everybody who I've ever talked to, intelligence agents, multiple star generals, special ops not retired, telling me about what the plans are. As seriously, Mike, they are going to do everything they can to kill the maximum amount of people. Obviously, it's already going on. You're seeing it happen.

Mike Adams:

The FEMA camps will become slaughterhouses. And I noticed you mentioned guillotines, and some people will question that, but let me add, the reason they're using guillotines, folks, is because the guillotines require no electricity to function, and they don't require ammunition, and they require no training to operate. They can be used over and over again in very low tech, off grid situations by untrained obedient murderers, and that's why guillotines, okay? Because we're talking about a battlefield that's going to have a loss of the power grid, logistics and distribution, supply problems, obviously, an ammunition shortage. As Steve just said, what we're looking at is a situation where the media propaganda, whatever still functioning on a local radio, or something, might say, "Oh, are you hungry? Are you starving? Show up at this address in town, and you'll have food." You show up, and they usher you in, and then they slaughter you.

Steve Quayle:

It'll be AI, and it'll be crowd driven. "All my friends just went in and just texted me," Are you kidding me? They'll take away your cell phone you know. "I'm having three square meals a day, and the people here are really nice." That will be the equivalent of Tokyo rose offering to the American servicemen. "Come in, and we've got a nice wall, where you can lean up against," except she doesn't tell you, the firing squad is there. That's, Mike, the sadness, and that's what makes me so upset, okay?

People are cooperating in their own demise is one thing, people setting up their wives for their eventual death or worse. If you read what happens to women that are taken captive by the Taliban, it's so horrible, I can't even express it. In Afghanistan, mothers are selling theirsix- and eight-year-old girls to old Afghan men for sex, for enough food to eat.

Getting back the United States, I believe we're going into like forced hard lockdown. The only thing I see that will interrupt that is a nuclear first strike by the Russians against the United States. I think it's another thing that people got to understand that the forced vaccination – look, shot in the arm, shot in the head, either way, you end up dead. That's not just a cliché.

Mike Adams:

What's extraordinary though, Steve, is that there are so many Americans, typical leftists, they are obedience worshipers. It's almost like they're competing in an obedience contest. If a local government "authority" tells them, "Well, you need to show up and report at this facility," and you're going to get a free vaccine shot, or a free double masking, or whatever, they will be glad to show up. They will obey any order, no matter how insane it is. They will give up their guns, they will give up their children, they will give up their assets, anything to comply with obedience, and they will be slaughtered. There's a moment when you're looking at this, and you realize that this is kind of natural selection, in a sense, as they say, the Darwin Award. Who's winning the Darwin Award? They are the people, who are the obedience worshipers.

Who are the survivors? Well, those are the preppers, those are the people who said no, those are the people who saw what was coming, and protected their children, their families, their communities. It's the Christians, it's the Patriots, it's the veterans, a lot of the cops, it's the preppers and the survivalists. Those are the ones who are going to still be here as this mass genocidal slaughterhouse die-off actually accelerates.

Steve Quayle:

Well, and I think that prepping is a biblical principle. I'll give it too, because I've heard Christians say, "Oh, you don't have any faith." Well, let me share something, Noah obeyed God, and basically, we all wouldn't be here if it wasn't for Noah. Joseph obeyed God. God told him go interpret Pharaoh's dream, there's going to be seven years of plenty, seven years of famine, you can go through the entire Old and New Testament. Jesus on the Sermon on the Mount, all the people were hungry, there was a little boy there that has some fish, and some loaves of bread. He brought it to Jesus, somebody sent their child in a prep mode, because the mother didn't know when her son would come back. The parable of the 10 virgins. Everything in the Bible, even the Scripture says, "The wise man sees evil coming, and hides himself from it. But fools pass on, and are destroyed." The most dangerous scripture, and I mean dangerous, and Christians need to really see God on this, in my opinion, if God Himself says his people are destroyed for lack of knowledge, not because He doesn't warn them, but because they don't listen to Him, and they reject it. Again, Mike, and this is a principle in Scripture. You can have the most famous prophets in the Old Testament and Jesus in the New Testament, and they can tell you what's going to happen.

Here's a great statement, I didn't make it up. I believe the Lord really drew my attention to it though. No word of God spoken by a man of God, or a woman of God, is ever received by the people at the time it is given. The scriptural proof of that is Jesus said to the most religious people in the world, the Jews of his day that turned Him over to Rome, and couldn't wait to get rid of Jesus, and He said to them, "You quote the prophets, but which of the prophets did you not kill?" In essence, they just don't want to hear the truth.

When a nation has given over to blindness, deception, greed, perversion, no love for the truth, no fighting for the innocent, no standing up for the unborn, it's a principle in history, people can challenge it, obviously. As a writer of ancient history and prehistory, I know the history of what happens when nations become so self-centered, and let's just say this, essentially driven, they end up being destroyed. The Roman Senate is no different than our Senate, except they didn't have Nancy Pelosi and her 31 flavors of ice cream, or the House of Representatives. Somebody said to me, "What do you think of the House of Representatives?" I said, well, they represent themselves very well. They want to take our houses, but they sure like their houses.

Again, Mike, here's the thing, people have got to wake up. If they don't wake up, they die. People have got to grow up. If they don't grow up, they die. People have got to understand the lateness of the hour. If they don't understand the lateness of the hour, they die, because as much as they don't want to admit, the reality that exists in the world today, that reality of the world is going to make them cannon fodder, and it's going to steamroll them all.

Steve, in addition to the vaccine induced die-off, just give us your thoughts, just kind of a summary if you would please, about the risk of smallpox being released, aerosolized release systems. We know there are skin penetrating toxic nanoparticles. Those were mentioned in the Eco Health Alliance proposal to DARPA for government funding, which was denied by DARPA, by the way. What about weaponized Ebola, hemorrhagic fever, Marburg, what are your thoughts on other biological weapons that could be dropped on U.S. cities in 2022 or beyond?

Steve Quayle:

Well, I believe they're all going to be released, because, I believe, the end goal, and everybody needs to understand this, is the word extinction of the human race, or substitute even a little more powerful word, the annihilation of the human race. All of the pathogens of viruses, whether it's Ebola pox, which, by the way, came out of a laboratory, whether it's any form of smallpox derivatives or smallpox combinations, whether it's any of the Filo viruses, which are hemorrhagic fever, whether it's any genetically tweaked, built from scratch virus, they're all going to be followed up, because they have to terrorize people. Terrorize people, means people dropping dead before -- it's one thing when somebody drops down on a basketball court, or in a pool hall, and there's just no blood. It's another thing when hemorrhaging and bloods every place, okay? Because blood indicates life.

Knowing what's in the bio arsenals of the world -- and by the way, they don't have to spray it on cities -- what do you do? You just vaccinate a bunch of people with a specific string of vaccines that has an incubation period of let's say 14 days, you turn them loose in all the major cities of America.

I actually came up with a term for those people 25 years ago, I call them "infectons," okay? Intentionally infected people. Not Cylons, like from Battlestar Galactica, but "infectons." We're seeing that happen right now. Ebola, that's going to be the next buzz, because guess what? There are people that have combination Ebola bio weapon patents. Who might that be? You know, the Gates of hell, who wants to be Dr. Mengele.

Mike, it's succinctly as I know, it's all going to be released, ratcheting up in fear, and people will do anything once they begin to see people dying, bleeding out, and hearing the horror stories, because that's what the mainstream, and I don't use it MSM, mainstream media, I use mainstream ATM, mainstream Accessories To Murder," because they are all owned. Every single one of the major networks are owned by Luciferian globalists, and people that are in total control of the narrative. So, yes, all of the above. Again, they figured out a better way to do it. I call it the airlines, now, my new term for them is "scarelines," okay?

Again, the lack of admitting to the true science of transmission and shedding virus. By the way, everybody who's going in the hospitals and dying are the ones that are vaccinated. Why would the people that supposedly want to defend the health of the country be against anything that does work?

Mike, in my opinion, and I think it's an educated opinion, because I wrote the book, "Breathe No Evil" 20 years ago. I was the first guy, and I'm not bragging, I'm just telling you, to talk about binary, even chemical weapons. In Russia, it was called Novichok for newcomers. But I paid attention to the defectors from Russia in those days, Soviet Union, and I know what's out there. They will conveniently pull out in their, I would call, bag of death what they need to scare the most amount of people into compliance.

Here's my statement, compliance -- I know this isn't the right word, so they don't have to write you -- but compliance equals die-off, okay? The more you comply, the more people die. That's my statement. They don't have to spray it. The chemtrail spraying has been going on for 26 years, and again, for the record, I was the first guy to bring it up, because the aerosolized engineering of the atmosphere also did one thing, it began to destroy the human immune system, it began to poison the food, it began to poison the water, the wildlife, the fish. These are sinisterly evil, demonic controlled entities.

Let's talk about transhumanism, because part of this, as you know, is the destruction of humanity as we currently know it. Now, in addition to the vaccines being mRNA instructions that take over your human cells and program your cells with an operating system, to produce non-human proteins. I mean, the companies that make these brag about that's what it does. In addition to the gene altering effects of this, the trans genetic or transfection effects, we know the spike protein goes into the nucleus of the cell, for example. We know this is really gene therapy applied to alter people from something other than human, but in addition to that, we now have this astonishing new announcement from IBM. In partnership with Samsung, they have announced a new Skynet level microprocessor technology that allows them to stack microprocessors in the z plane, their vertical transistors, which opens up enormous increases in computational density, combined with an 85 percent power reduction in the use of the transistors. The upshot is that this means they can now unleash the global Internet of Things with AI supercomputers embedded in clothing, embedded in devices, embedded in cameras, everywhere, and ultimately embedded in your skull, and through the Neuralink technology, then having an AI supercomputer, cloud-run, augmented reality rendering system that feeds overlays directly into your optical nerves, and your inner ear, your entire sensory experience. They use so little power, they can be run on the bio electric power produced in your body, that potential in your own skin. In other words, we're talking full matrix here. You're going to be a copper top, you're going to be blue pill, you're going to be plugged into the matrix, Mark Zuckerberg's Metaverse, you won't even have to wear goggles. They'll just interface directly with your brain, and they will give you their reality and turn you into a biological robot. That Skynet level AI microprocessor technology was just announced on December 14 of 2021. Your thoughts on transhumanism, Steve?

Steve Quayle:

Well, first of all, I wrote a book called "Genetic Armageddon." I dealt with transhumanism in that book 20 years ago, and this is important. The last book I wrote, outside of my book, "Jesus - The Promise of the Promise," was terminated. The end of man is here, okay? With the Terminator robot, and there are two headstones that are there, Mike, this is important. The headstone one says, "Here lies the human race," and the next one says, "Who failed to see their end, when they stare them in the face."

All transhumanists, according to the most famous ones, Zoltan Istvan made the statement at the heart of a transhumanist -- they want to live forever. That's a promise that the devil made to Eve in the Garden of Eden, that she would not die, so they're not going to die. This is the replacement of humanity, which is called H+ or singularity. Singularity is another term for emerging men and machines, until the men part of that equation are done away with, the Neuralink and all of the events

By the way, everything you ran through, is already out there, it's already in place. The Super Soldier program, it exists on multiple continents. China has them, US has them, Russia has them. The Jean-Claude Van Damme movie, hey, it was ahead of its time Universal Soldier.

Ultimately, Mike, it's promising mankind godlike abilities apart from God. What I mean by godlike abilities, you'll never die, you'll basically get a boost, and whatever power system you need, and you'll be able to pretty much live forever. The other thing that's interesting, and I coined the term, "Star Trek Boardicated." You can figure out what the "icated" comes from, but you're assimilated into the Internet of Things. Everything you think do and say will be programmed into you in a different way. There'll be different classes of what I would call "terminatees." Those who are allowed to live will become purely mechanized bio replacements of former human beings, and then they become, interestingly enough, demon-possessed, because a demon is a disembodied spirit of a giant. A Fallen Angel is not a demon. The ghost in the machine, in other words, sentient entities will take control of inanimate objects, and you'll have, basically, a supernatural evil life force animating a, if you will, genetically altered, once human, automaton.

The Metaverse, the universe, everything is designed to separate mankind from the reality of God's creation. The devil is promising everybody eternal life, eternal power, eternal pleasure, eternal perversion, and in essence, there was an interesting interesting phenomenal. You know this. Google robots were programmed initially to stay within the confines of their original programming language, but what happened? The inventors found out the robots were starting to go outside of their design parameters, and they can only do that, in my opinion, through the presence of evil spirits. The old statement, can inanimate objects be demon-possessed? Absolutely.

Over and around the world, taboo is always an inanimate object that is spiritually empowered to keep people in fear, and that's the whole basis of all of the taboos of the world. To answer your question, the termination of the human race is underway. What we're being told of today existed years ago, and they're breaking it to us little by little until, guess what? We're all absorbed into the board.

Mike Adams:

Let's get into more of the demonic possession, and specifically, it seems like many of the so-called leaders of our world, Daniel Andrews in Australia, Jacinda Ardern in New Zealand, Cuomo or Newsom in America, or Pelosi, for that matter. To many people these entities appear to be demonically possessed, some would even say the Pope. I think you refer to the Pope as an entity. To what extent do you believe that demonic possession is currently in place? Possessing the once human bodies of these world leaders, so-called leaders, who are enslaving humanity under medical tyranny, and COVID genocide, with actual concentration camps, transitioning into slaughterhouses for global depopulation. Are the demons already running this?

Steve Quayle:

Absolutely, but more importantly than that, they're yielding themselves, these world leaders, many of them are going to have literal encounters with Lucifer. To remind people, Lucifer isn't the typical Underwood Deviled Ham, and the projection of the satanic statues. He was the ultimate beautiful being in heaven before God kicked him out. Some of those leaders, and I'm told of this, Mike, by people in the know, that have been to Antarctica, they had go there to pledge their allegiance to Lucifer, their undying fealty. So, it is one thing to be demon-possessed again.

I want to make it clear, a demon is a disembodied spirit. Disembodied spirits come from something that was hybridized. When a human woman gave birth to a fallen angel child, and fallen angels are capable of looking like humans, the Bible says they can even manifest themselves of angels of light. That means fallen angels can take on human reproductive capabilities, and sired these giants, these hybrids. Mike, those things when they died, became demons on the Earth. 1/3 of the angels of heaven fell. Those are the fallen angels.

They can take on human form. I believe they are the replacements. I believe that the normal humans, once they yield themselves to a specific level of evil, they no longer are human. You and I have had that talk, they are no longer human.

There is an appetite of hell. Demons are always considered ghouls. Human sacrifice, human cannibalism, all of it. I've written about books like that for 40 years, all tracks back to people appeasing the gods with blood. It goes back to Moloch in the Old Testament days. They used to burn their babies alive in the arms of the false god Moloch. Obviously, Moloch is the God of the Bohemian Grove. Moloch is not a god, basically, people who sell their souls to gain power by sacrificing innocent blood. What I'm trying to say is this. It's my contention that Jesus said, there's going to be a small remnant, but I think the whole world is going to go after Satan, because Jesus said, the whole world lies in the evil one. That means they can't tell the truth once they've given themselves over.

By the way, some of the major evangelists in United States have sold their souls to Lucifer. That's not speculation. That's from people who have been at Luciferian initiations, and seen them there.

Alright, Steve, I want to thank you for your time and your wisdom in this entire documentary series. We have raised the alert for humanity,

I believe, in this. Shared a lot of information, scratched the surface on just some other topics. I know you have a wealth of knowledge on other things, including we didn't really talk yet about earthquakes that much, and volcanoes, and what to expect. Just wrapping this up, in the interest of time. What final thought do you want to leave people with here for this "Battlefield America" series? What should people take from this?

Steve Quayle:

Everything that's been normal that even was in the context of a hurricane, or tornado, or earthquake, volcanic eruptions, everything is going to worsen, to the point that people say, "I've never seen it like this." Ladies and gentlemen, that's because it's never been like this.

Mike, I just want to say this. You appear on this. This is my last time at bat, okay, producing DVDs, and you're on this, Dane Wigington is on this, and actually, I don't appear on screen on this. But it's water wars, nuclear war about to ignite the greatest migration of humanity in Earth's history. No matter how bad you think it's going to get, it's going to be worse, okay?

I believe the only way to deal with it is in intellectual honesty, and in my understanding of history, and understanding of the way the world's going, 12 books, 6 videos. I can tell you this, Jesus told us it was going to happen, Jesus told us He'd be with us as it happens, and if it weren't for Jesus, I couldn't breathe another day.

I want to share this too, because this is my bottom line. The only way any of us are going to make it through this is by caring enough for our loved ones, our families, our country, to be able to fight for it in every realm, and to be ready to lay down our lives for it, because Jesus laid his life down for us.

Mike, I just want to thank you. Listen, this is a true statement. You have made such a contribution to the combined efforts of all of the conferences I've been able to put on in person, and then on virtual conferences. I think people, you've got to understand, we do know what we're talking about. Somebody said, "Well, you're a conspiracy theorist," by the way, that was invented by the CIA in 1967. I said, No, I'm a conspiracy realist, because the ultimate conspiracy is a spiritual one, where Satan himself lied to a third of the angels, and they believed it, and they got thrown out of heaven. When people call me a conspiracy theorist, I say, Nope. I said, first of all, define conspiracy, and they can't do it. And I said, then, what's the difference between a theorist and a realist? A realist has real-world experience, and can base the evidence of his position.

I'm also a human racist. I want people to know I'm a racist, but it's a human racist. I'm fighting as you're fighting, we're fighting for the literal nature and the ongoing viability of the human race. Jesus said, "If you didn't shorten the days for the elect's sake, there'll be no flesh left alive." That means extinction. We would become annihilated. So, I make no apologies for that, but unfortunately, so few people want to deal with. I tell people, they have to understand everybody has the last breath, a last view, a last smell, a last taste, a last meal, a last kiss, last hug, and where are you going when you believe the lie, and you find out that the man entity, actually not a man, the Cherub, Lucifer, every promise he made was a lie? He says, when the screen goes out of hell, "but you lied to us," and the devil himself answers, "Yes, but you believed it."

People have got to understand if they will apply themselves into knowledge, if they will see that the Bible has the answers, and they will seek God, the living gods, say God, "if You're real, reveal Yourself to me," because Mike, what you're seeing is a displacement of Christianity by occult forces, where Biblical Christianity is now such a minor part of our contemporary history, that we are once a great nation, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all, now, we're a divided nation. We are no longer one nation under God, we're not under God anymore. We've kicked God out. The Democrats made war on Him, and the Republicans without spines, and they'd been bought off too

The enclosing, ladies and gentlemen, you've got to see the world for as it is. Not what you hope it will become the future, not even what it was in the past, you can't go back, but what will you do. What will you do when it's up to you to decide the fate of your family?

Mike, I got to tell you, there's no turning the nation around, in my opinion. Someone says, "Well, that's a negative." There is no turning it around, but what people can do is turn their lives over to the living God, and this will get a lot of people mad, but find out He has the answers for this very time, because God says in His Word, He is the Lord. He's the only one that could declare the end of a thing, meaning the end times, at the beginning of a thing.

Again, thank you for what you do, and again, thank you for all the times you have graced the conferences, both real and virtual, and I consider it an honor to be on with you today.

Mike Adams:

Well, I consider it a great honor to have your time here and your wisdom with us. I want to say God bless you, Steve, for all that you have done for humanity, spanning several decades, and the things that you wrote about even in the late 1990s that seemed outlandish, have now come true.

Humanity is at a dangerous turning point right now. America is lost. I agree with your assessment. America, as we know it, is lost, but the America that lives within our spirit can be reborn. Born Again, literally, in the Christian tradition.

Steve Quayle:

I'm not ruling that out, okay? But values have to be reestablished that give equal justice under the law that absolutely defend the life of the unborn, and value -- not hate -- life. Transhumanists hate humanity, because they, the lead transhumanists, are driven by very evil spiritual forces that are hell-bent on destroying mankind.

Mike Adams:

Absolutely, you've nailed it. Alright, Steve, we've reached the end of this documentary series. For all of you watching, I want to say thank you for watching this. You do have permission to repost this in its entirety. And of course, please support Steve Quayle. We put his website URL on screen, and support Brighteon.com, so that we can continue to create documentaries like this, and raise the alarm, and bring awareness to these desperate issues, as humanity fights for its very survival.

For all of you watching, I want to say thank you, God bless each and every one of you. Thank you for your prayers. I'm Mike Adams, the founder of Brighteon.com, and Steve Quayle, thank you so much for joining us today.

Steve Quayle:

You're welcome, Mike. God bless everybody. ■

MIKE: Welcome to the Global Reset Survival Guide. I am Mike Adams, your host, I am known as the Health Ranger, and I will bring you many hours here of explanations about the coming global reset; what it's going to look like, and how to survive it.

So just to begin, the global reset involves a collapse of most of what we have come to know and as a sustainable society. There is a chance of between 70% year 2025 or maybe not even by 2022 - we'll see. There is going to be a food supply collapse that will feed into the mass starvation, famine, and social unrest. There will be more biological weapons used to cause a second wave of the pandemic and there may be cyberattacks on the power grid, EMP weapons launched, additional false flag events to cause more wars in the United States, and so on. The bottom line we could say roughly 90% of the human population will be killed off in the coming years.

...er lining to this, by the way, ... about -
