The Washington Times has reported that Joe Biden has signed a bill formally ending the COVID-19 public health emergency.

Three years and one month after the World Health Organization (WHO) declared the Covid-19 outbreak a global pandemic, President Joe Biden on Monday signed a bill which formally ends the public health emergency in the United States.

So, after forced vaccinations (or face unemployment, travel restrictions and public ostracism), mask mandates, destroyed businesses, lockdowns, and Covid-19 still circulating as the rest of society has moved on, the US Government has finally surrendered.

Peter Doshi, an associate professor at the University of Maryland School of Pharmacy who accessed the data, found that Pfizer hid data on waning immunity as millions lined up to get its COVID-19 vaccine.
