Will this prevent the evil plans of the WHO and UN?

David Sorensen

6-8 minutes

The world is outraged about the agenda of the World Health Organization and United Nations to normalize pedophilia through primary education. A US congresswoman is taking a bold stand against it, leading newspapers are alerting the public, renown physicians speak out, and international organizations rise up.

On May 6th 2023 we released a devastating

evidence report that shows the agenda of the WHO and UN to promote pedophilia in kindergartens and elementary schools through the extreme sexualization of little children. Meanwhile the International Committee of Jurists (ICJ) and UNAIDS calls for the decriminalization of sex between adults and children.

The WHO and UN guidelines say that little children must learn masturbation, sexual techniques, and have sexual partners.

The Rutgers Foundation was chosen by the WHO to execute this agenda in 27 nations. In a training guide for teachers Rutgers says that the purpose of this sexuality education is to "give children ideas so they will start with sex sooner". This foundation has a long history of pushing for the legalization of pedophilia. Rutgers has worked extensively with organizations that own large collections of child pornography. The close partnership between the World Health Organization and Rutgers to execute the sexuality education worldwide, proves how this is a clear attempt to normalize pedophilia through primary education.

US Congresswoman takes a bold stand

Following the release of our evidence report a worldwide outrage erupted against this pedophilia agenda, and in the United States the first political leader is taking a bold stand against it. On May 17, 2023 US congresswoman Anna Paulina Luna from Florida's 13th district is holding a press conference to oppose Biden's plan to align the US with the WHO guidance to sexualize little children.

This is a critical event, that could be the start of a chain of reactions to protect the United States from this extreme pedophilia agenda. We applaud the courage of Anna Paulina Luna, and hope her example will inspire many other brave political leaders worldwide to stand up against this blatant agenda to normalize sexual child abuse.

Days after the release of our report, two of the largest newspapers in the United Kingdom have published articles to alert the public about the WHO agenda to sexualize little children. One of these news outlets is The Telegraph, which received the “News Website of the Year” award in the United Kingdom. The other is Daily Mail. They mention how education authorities from Wales are demanding the WHO withdraws these guides. It was also discussed by the UK Column News, a frontrunner platform in accurate and uncensored news reporting. In Australia The Spectator gave attention to this topic, and the Swedish NewsVoice asked permission to translate the entire report in Swedish.

Our report is also featured on PreventGenocide2030.org which is an initiative to force governments to cancel their membership with the World Health Organization. The World Council for Health also started talking about this topic on Twitter. They attempt to replace the WHO by building a better platform for worldwide healthcare.

I believe this will have a profound effect on the future of our world, because it is exposing the true nature of the WHO and UN. As most of us are aware of, these are private organizations run by criminal oligarchs who use them to impose suffocating tyranny onto humanity, while enriching themselves.

Bill Gates is one of the people behind the WHO, a man without any kind of medical training, who dictates health policies to the entire world. Figure this: a man without any medical background is telling all medical professionals worldwide what they can and cannot do. The insanity of this is beyond belief...

They depend on the

ignorance of the public

The purpose of the WHO and UN is to impose tyranny on all of humanity, under the guise of “keeping you safe” and “saving the planet”. The name of their operation is Agenda 2030, with so called sustainability goals that aim to transform every aspect of human existence on earth.

Most of these goals serve the interests of oligarchs, while impoverishing mankind.

The ultimate goal of their agenda is summarized by the World Economic Forum:

"By the year 2030 you will own nothing, have no privacy, and be happy." The goal is to transfer all ownership to the elites, and make every person a poor peasant who rents even their clothes, cars and tools from these overlords. All to "save the planet from climate change".

This operation relies one single thing: the blind belief of mankind that this is for our good.

Once the true nature of the UN, WHO, WEF, EU, and other globalist entities is exposed on a big enough scale, their plans will fail. That's why this report is key to preventing their agenda for world tyranny. Therefore I repeat my plea to all who read this, to please not stand at the sidelines, but spread this report. It is already changing the world, but we have to make sure it goes further and further. It is available in English, French, German, Spanish Portugese and Dutch. You find the different languages through our homepage: StopWorldControl.com

Send the different language versions to all your contacts in these regions. And keep posting it on Truth Social, Telegram, Gab, Gettr, Twitter, Facebook, LinkedIn. etc.

Also send it to your local politicians, school staff, local law enforcement, local news media, hospitals, and more. This is critical because these are the unknowing minions of these criminals elites, who unquestioningly execute every criminal order. The more people in education, healthcare, law enforcement, media and politics understand what the UN and WHO are truly about, the more they will refuse to execute their destructive plans.

If we want to prevent the nefarious agenda of the WHO and UN, it is imperative that we reveal to mankind how wicked they are. Their mask must come off.

So please do whatever it takes to keep sending this report out to the world. Have the courage to make a difference. If you are a journalist, then have the guts to speak truth. Don't be a servant of cruel criminals, but stand up for the children of this world, and humanity as a whole.

Together we can build a better world!
