

Misunderstood: The Putin Revelations

Непонятый: Откровения Путина

“Russia is a riddle wrapped in a mystery inside an enigma.”

- Sir Winston Churchill

If modern-day Russia remains a mysterious geopolitical cipher for most Western observers, then Russian President Vladimir Putin is its iconic “poster-boy.”

Like him or not, Putin has emerged as a modern, no-nonsense leader who is determined to restore Russia to its proper place of respect as a world power and bastion of culture. Yet, somehow, many leaders in the West are suspicious of him and his motives... and, all-to-often, Western media outlets present Putin as a dangerous (maybe even rogue) head-of-state whose motives are not to be trusted.

“Misunderstood: The Putin Revelations” (Непонятый: Откровения Путина) will set the record straight... once and for all.

Format: Ten ninety-minute episodes, each containing a 15 minute “set-up” preface package produced and hosted by Emmy Award-winning journalist and news anchor, Shad Olson.

This would be followed by an intimate, “no-holds-barred” 60 minute interview with President Vladimir Putin featuring questions specifically dealing with each episode’s topic.

After the interview, there would be commentary from Dr. Ella Ivshin, Ph.D. to provide a summary of some of the more subtle contextual implications of what was shared by President Putin.

Each episode would close with a final thought by host Sam Kephart and end with a billboard of a thoughtful quote from a figure in world history that captures the energy and essence of what was just presented.
